THOU WILT GO AND FORGET ME

BALLAD

WRITTEN BY

T. Haynes Bayly

The Music Composed

By

ALEX. LEE.

Philadelphia, A. FIOT, Nº 196 Chesnut St

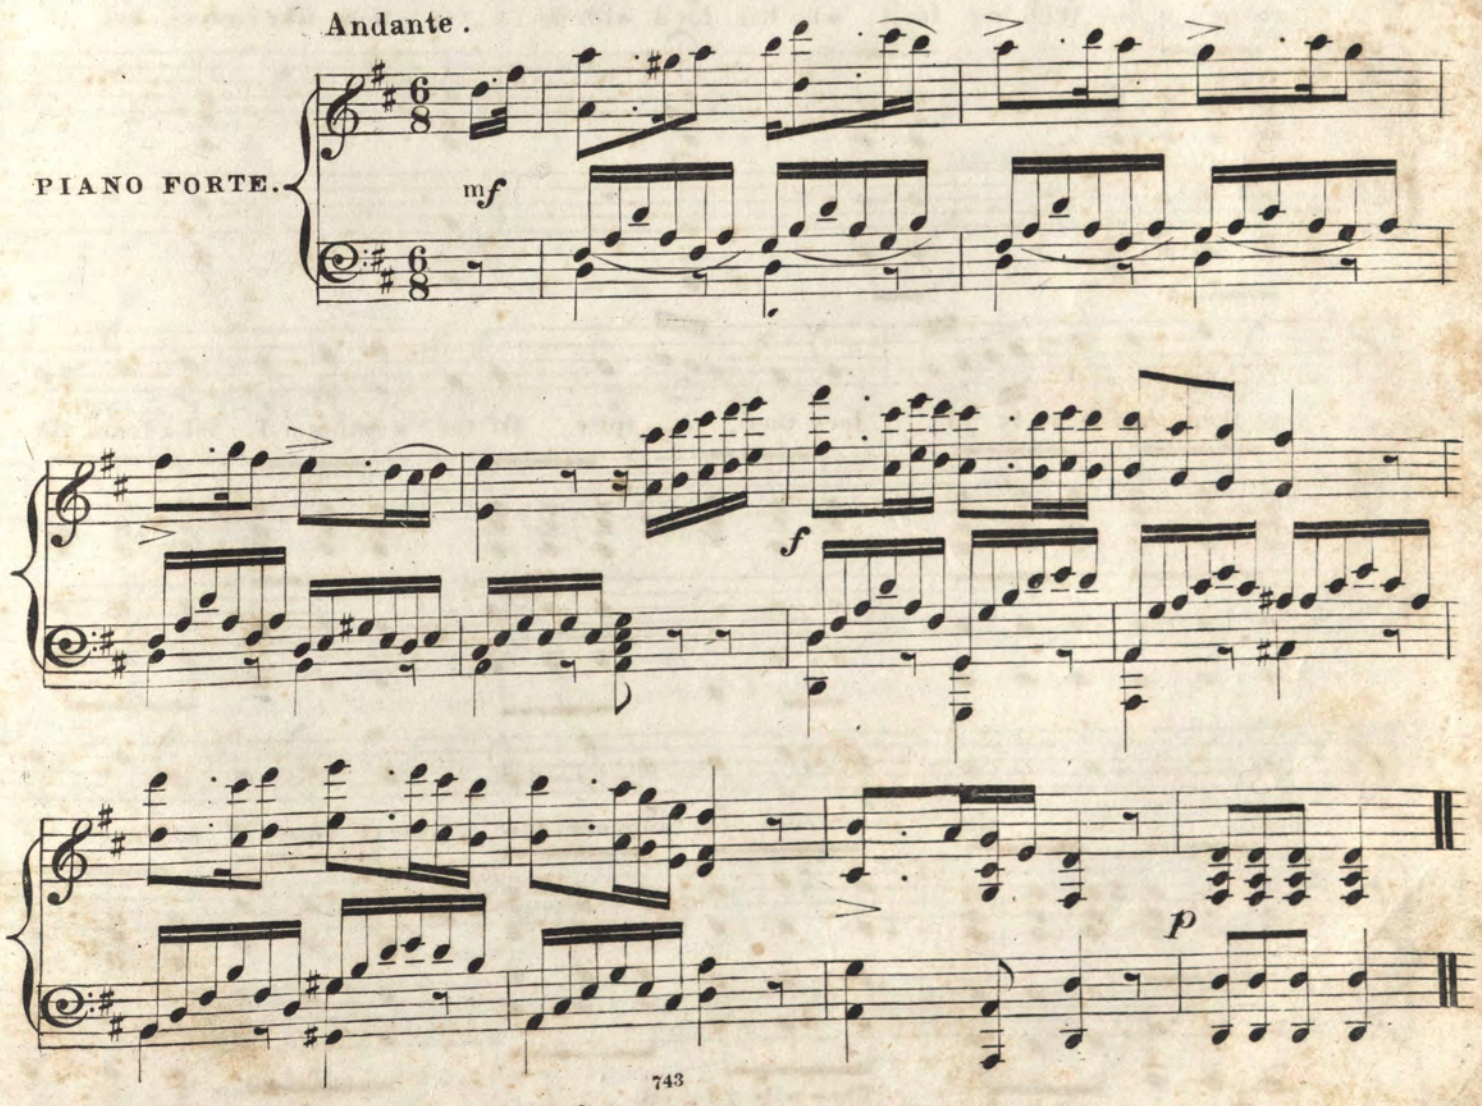
Andante.

PIANO FORTE.



Thou wilt go and for_get me, as o__thers have done, Who have lov'd with an ardour like thine. I shall weep in thine absence, like many a one, Who has lov'd, who has lov'd with de_ _vo_tion like mine. Yet I love thee, oh! dear_ly I love thee, in spite Of the warning I take from the past; As the sweet rose of summer, the sweet rose of summer we love, we love with de_ _light, Tho' we know that its bloom cannot Ad libtum.

last, Tho' we know that its bloom cannot last. Thou wilt go and for_ _ _ get me! Thou'lt go and for_ get me!
Andante.
2nd. Verse.
Thou wilt go and forget me, I know it full well! And a_las! 'tis the way of the world; For when Friends muster strongest we always can tell Tis then, 'tis then Pleasure's Flag is unfurl'd! Yet I love thee, oh! dearly I love thee, in spite Of the warning I take from the past; As the sweet Rose of Summer, the sweet Rose of Summer we love, we love with de_ _light, Tho' we know that its bloom cannot last. Tho' we know that its bloom cannot Ad libitum.
Slower.
last. Thou wilt go and for_get me! Thou'lt go and for_get me.
